Call to Worship

Prayer of Adoration and Invocation

ILLUMINATION, MEDITATION & CONSECRATION

Prayer of Confession

We come to you today as deeply forgetful people. You have been so much better to us than we deserve, faithfully fulfilling your commitment to give us good things in Christ. We quickly forget all the wonderful gifts that you have already given us, and feel angry and bitter when you won't answer our prayers the way in which we want you to. Forgive us Lord! Have mercy upon us. Jesus thank you for remembering the truth faithfully on our behalf. You worshiped your Father daily, with unwavering faith and unshakable hope in his goodness. Cherishing the Father's unchangeable character, you submitted to his perfect wisdom and trusted him completely in all circumstances of your life, even when it was most painful. You took refuge in him often in your times of need and never turned toward false gods. Now your obedience becomes our strong encouragement to hope in the midst of continuing weakness, and you continue to advocate our cause as our heavenly High Priest. We have no other hope, nor do we need one. Lord forgive our weak faith and our unbelief. Remove from us all in us and about us that breaks your heart. (continue in silent personal confession....)
