CHILDREN OF THE WORLD CHOIR CONCERT THIS WEDNESDAY!

Don't miss this very special opportunity as 14 children from Nepal, Uganda, Honduras and the Philippines bless us with a wonderful music concert following our Wednesday evening meal - about 6:30 p.m. in the gym. The children in this choir come to us from children's homes supported by World Help, a Christian humanitarian organization serving the physical and spiritual needs of people in impoverished communities around the world. Cathy Marshall states, my church hosted the Children of the World Choir a few years ago and it was one of the best programs we have ever had. The children were such a blessing to us and I hope we can host them again in the future!

A love offering will be taken to help support World Help in their efforts to provide food for hungry children orphaned by AIDS, families stranded by war and conflict, persecuted believers suffering in prison cells, and entire communities lacking access to clean water. Thank you for your support.

COMMUNITY FALL FESTIVAL

Crestwood and Elijah House Academy will host the 4th Annual Community Fall Festival at the Crestwood/EHA Jahnke Road Campus on Saturday, October 28, from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. Many volunteers are needed for this outreach event in the Jahnke Road community. Sign up to help at the Engage table or online through the City! We also are collecting bags of candy to hand out as prizes. Please place your candy donations in the bin beside our table at either campus!

We are a congregation in the ECO denomination - A Covenant Order of Evangelical Presbyterians. Find out more at www.eco-pres.org.
